LA + BRINTONS PARLOR

Brintons

THE INSPIRATION -

The original Parlor collection started as an exploratory crack at an age-old artist's game called the Exquisite Corpse. Pieces of quartered paper traveled across North and South America, making their way to each designer on our team, ready to be filled with their unique marks. Once the pages were full of completed collaborative drawings, they were sent back out into the field for our designers to respond to, but the game did not stop there.

We decided to extend the playful spirit to some of our favorite designers in Los Angeles. A handful of design firms partnered with our LA based design and sales duo to pull together this unique collection of Axminster patterns infused with the true collaborative spirit of the hospitality industry.
