BRINTONS DESIGNER TRANSFORMS DREAMSCAPE TO CARPET WITH NEWEST COLLECTION

ATLANTA, NOVEMBER 12, 2023 | Global industry leader in luxury woven carpets, Brintons, debuts their Fall 2023 Self Expression design collection, Woolgather.

The third collection in the 2023 Self Expression series was dreamt into existence by Brintons Senior Designer Scott Evans. Meaning to indulge in aimless thoughts or daydreams, this collection could only be titled Woolgather. Imbued with a sense of whimsy, nostalgia, and the city skyline, Woolgather is set to transform spaces into dreamscapes.

Offering six patterns in a color palette ranging from amber to warm brown and cool greys, the Woolgather designs introduce us to another side of nature as it dances and undulates with surrounding architecture peeking through while momentarily blending the skyline in a kaleidoscope of hard edges and brush strokes from mother nature. Each design and their cozy autumn color palette transitions seamlessly, mirroring the shift from dawn to dusk in an urban setting.

During the design process, Scott was asked about the many inspirations behind the collection. "I am a silly romantic about pretty much everything in life," he says while also mentioning walks in the city with his wife and listening to music that inspires the art behind the patterns. "Try to put on some headphones, get outside, close your eyes, and give these songs a listen. This and the whispers of fall are the basis of the collection." His playlist recommendations include jams like Third Eye Blind's Motorcycle Drive By, Second Chances by Gregory Alan Isakov, and Seasons by Chris Cornell.

Woolgather is not just a collection of designs but a journey into the limitless world of the imagination with layered textures and earthy hues that will deliver a unique sensory experience in any space.

Originally designed as Axminster patterns, the collection's six designs can be reworked across various constructions (Axminster, Wilton, Hand Tufted or Machine Tufted). Clients can choose the patterns as they are originally shown or customize them to specific needs. Join in the self expression at Brintons Design Studio Online (dso.brintons.net).

Woolgather will debut Sunday, November 12, 2023 on the Brintons website and Design Studio Online. For more information or to explore the full collection, please visit www.brintons.net.
